Council will vote on adoption of 2015 Roadmap Report

Olympia — On Dec. 10, the council will review the final draft of the 2015 Roadmap Report before voting on adoption. This 2015 Roadmap is the first progress report on Washington State's educational attainment goals, that by 2023:

- All adults in Washington, ages 25–44, will have a high school diploma or equivalent.
- At least 70 percent of Washington adults, ages 25–44, will have a postsecondary credential.

Once the report is adopted and finalized, the council will submit it to the Legislature and Governor's Office.

The meeting will occur via teleconference, starting at 10:30 a.m. and adjourning at 11:30 a.m. The public is invited to listen, and public comment can be submitted in writing to Kristin Ritter (kristinr@wsac.wa.gov). All materials will be available online the day of the meeting.

About the Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC): Established as a cabinet-level state agency in 2012, WSAC provides strategic planning, administrative oversight and advocacy to support increased student success and higher levels of educational attainment in Washington.

The nine-member Council includes five citizen members, one of whom is a current student, and one representative from each of Washington's four major educational sectors. The Council proposes improvements and innovations to meet the evolving needs of students, employers and the educational community. In recognition of the economic, social and civic benefits of public education, the council advocates for increased financial support and civic commitment to ensure a thriving Washington.
