Eligibility Requirements

The Passport to Careers program can provide you with a scholarship toward a college education or apprenticeship, as well as support services to help you meet your education and career goals.

You are eligible for Passport financial assistance and other support services if you experienced:

- Foster care at any point between the ages of 13 and 18.
- Unaccompanied homelessness during the prior academic year.

You must meet the following requirements to participate in Passport:

- Be a resident of Washington State.*
\ If you are in ICPC and not a Washington resident, contact WSAC.*
- Enroll at least half-time in an eligible institution of higher education, or a recognized pre-apprenticeship or registered apprenticeship program in Washington State, before turning age 22.
- Not yet have earned a bachelor's degree.
- Not pursue a degree in theology.

Learn more online in the Passport to Careers Guide.
