Background:

Northeastern University is a private, non-profit institution based in Boston, MA. It recently received authorization to open a branch campus in the Seattle area as well as advertise and recruit for a number of programs offered exclusively via distance learning. It has been accredited by New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc. since 1940.

Nature of the review:

Prior to granting authorization to offer new/additional degree programs in Washington State, the Washington Student Achievement Council/Degree Authorization reviews elements such as program outcomes, course requirements, method of course delivery, faculty credentials, and student services.

The program to be offered by Northeastern University appears to meet the requirements of the Degree-Granting Institutions Act.

Information on the additional program can be found at the Northeastern University website as follows: Master of Science in Biotechnology

Timeline:

The Council will accept comments on this application until March 26, 2013.

Any individuals with knowledge that may indicate the institution and/or the program does not meet the authorization requirements of WAC 250-61 are requested to submit comments to: Degree Authorization.

If you would like to know more about the current law and regulations that govern the program, they can be found at the following links: the statute is RCW 28B.85 and the regulation is WAC 250-61.
