HECB announces new blog to promote discussion of higher education issues

OLYMPIA—The Higher Education Coordinating Board (HECB) has launched a new blog to provide a forum for the exchange of information and ideas by members of the higher education community, the general public, and the HECB.

To view the HECBlog, go to <http://hecbwashington.blogspot.com/>. Keep abreast of the latest posts by checking back regularly, adding HECBlog to your Favorites list or toolbar, or by subscribing to Atom (RSS) feeds sent to your web browser or email. To subscribe to feeds, click on the “Posts” link under the Subscribe heading in the blog’s right-hand column.

Comments from readers about HECBlog posts are welcomed. Comments offered for publication will not be edited but will be reviewed prior to publication to ensure they comply with the HECB’s blog comment policy. Persons wishing to submit a comment must first create an account on Google; alternatively, they may email the comment to communications@hecb.wa.gov.

To ensure a speedy and appropriate response, members of the news media should continue to direct questions to the HECB’s public information office and refrain from posting questions as comments on the blog site. The HECB will continue to distribute news releases and other important announcements via email and will also post these items on the HECB website.
