Agency Update
Two-Month Executive Summary

Project	Recent Work
Outreach and advocacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College Bound Scholarship: Staff attended three CBS events in April and May, including a UWT event that drew over 800 students. • GEAR UP: This spring, the WSAC GEAR UP team created two new awards. The first recognizes high-achieving students from GEAR UP schools. The second celebrates exemplary GEAR UP coordinators who work in support of all GEAR UP students. • FAFSA Completion Initiative: As of May 29, 140 school districts signed on to participate in the FAFSA Completion Initiative, which provides student-level FAFSA completion data to district personnel.
Policy and research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regional Gold Gavel Award: WSAC received the ESD 105 Golden Gavel Award, in honor of the agency's commitment to strengthening secondary to postsecondary transitions. • Veterans: WSAC staff continued its support of veterans' transitions through multiple events with Governor Inslee's Veterans Employee Resource Group. • ISLS: The ISLS work will continue past its original deadline of June 30, due in large part to an opportunity from the NGA to extend the duration of the grant and receive additional funding. • Dual Credit: WSAC staff presented at the May 7 National Alliance of Concurrent Enrollment, providing insights to our state's efforts to strengthen college transitions and expand dual credit opportunities for Washington students.
Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SFA Trainings: Financial aid staff presented state aid workshops at six locations across the state with nearly 200 aid administrators in attendance from the 68 participating institutions. • Health Loan Repayment Program: The federal Health Professional Loan Repayment program received 85 applications for the 2015 cycle, and approximately 13 professionals will be selected to receive funding to repay student loans due to their commitment to serving as a health care professional in a critical shortage area. • Financial Aid – Institution Application: WSAC staff are reviewing an application from an institution (Victoria's Academy of Cosmetology) to participate in state financial aid. • GET: Unit purchases at this year's price can still be made through June 25, and are currently tracking about 6 percent above the same time last year, with over 490,000 units sold as of June 1
