

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Why does your organization care about opportunities for educational success for Washington's residents?

How could your organization or sector partner to contribute to increasing educational attainment?

How can we change Washington's public perceptions about the personal and societal value of post-secondary education?