Synopsis	The draft 2017 Roadmap Progress Report provides an overview of Washington’s progress toward the ten-year Roadmap to increase educational attainment. The report describes progress on high school graduation, postsecondary access, completion, and affordability, as well as attainment levels. The report discusses the consequences of low attainment and emerging initiatives to address key challenge areas. The draft will be routed among Council and technical workgroup members to incorporate feedback and share with the Legislature and Governor. The report findings and an interactive web-based dashboard will be reviewed in depth at the next Council meeting.
