

Invest in yourself

FINDING THE RIGHT COLLEGE FOR YOU MAY FEEL OVERWHELMING.

College & Career Compass is a free resource that can help! Answer a few simple questions online and you will be matched with a college coach who can assist in connecting you with nearby colleges and programs that are right for you.

These college coaches, who are familiar with the region's educational programs and training opportunities, are here to help adult learners take the next steps toward finishing their education or obtaining a certificate.

INVEST IN YOURSELF.

Connecting to a college coach is one of the many features of the College & Career Compass. After you finish your coaching contact form, be sure to use the College and Career Compass tool to explore the educational opportunities available in your area.

NAVIGATE YOUR FUTURE.

This free, limited-time, college coaching program is provided through a partnership with the Washington Student Achievement Council and the following Pierce County Institutions of Higher Education:
