

WA Grant for Apprenticeship

Are you an apprentice? Get free money to help pay for your expenses!

WA Grant isn't only for traditional college students. WA Grant for Apprenticeship (WG-A) includes funding for qualified apprentices in a variety of programs in Washington. Eligible apprentices can receive money to cover costs associated with their apprenticeship program.

A family of four making up to $120,500 can qualify for WA Grant.

To qualify for WG-A you need to:

1. Have a high school diploma or equivalent.
2. Be a resident of Washington State.
3. Be working in a participating WG-A program.
4. Meet requirements related to family income and need.
5. Not have a bachelor's degree or higher.

Meet these requirements? Apply directly with your Apprenticeship Program Sponsor!

WA Grant is for more types of education

WA Grant can pay for many kinds of learning, including:

- Approved apprenticeship programs.
- Workforce and training programs.

And gives more money...

An apprentice from a family of four making up to $120,500 can qualify. Funding provides:

- Money for tuition, fees, books, and necessary equipment.
- Additional money on top of regular pay that doesn't need to be paid back.

...to more people

WG-A can lead to higher-paying careers and greater job security for:

- Eligible apprentices of all ages.
- Part-time and full-time participants.

Learn more at wsac.wa.gov/wcg-apprentices